Your heart - My poem

If we touch the heart of God
How can we respond but to cry
The vanity of countless years Suffered yet forgiven felt but not declared
The tongues of angels comprehend and express a secret so clear yet unseen.

Confidence of the Son

The dragon breathed fire and roared
And said to the son you are not God
The Son who was God smiled and said nothing.

Your heart Prodigal Son story

Mary and Martha

2. Love yourself practically and deliberately

This is part of your worship

 - 3. All have sinned and fall short of the glory of God
 - 4. The wages of sin is death but the free gift of God is eternal life
- WHOEVER calls on the name of the Lord will be saved

Make a Choice

Critical spectator, reluctant observer, willing participant
