

Exploring and celebrating being part of the body of Christ

We are called to

Be Jesus-Looking Mirrors

Love God and Other

Transform 'one by one'

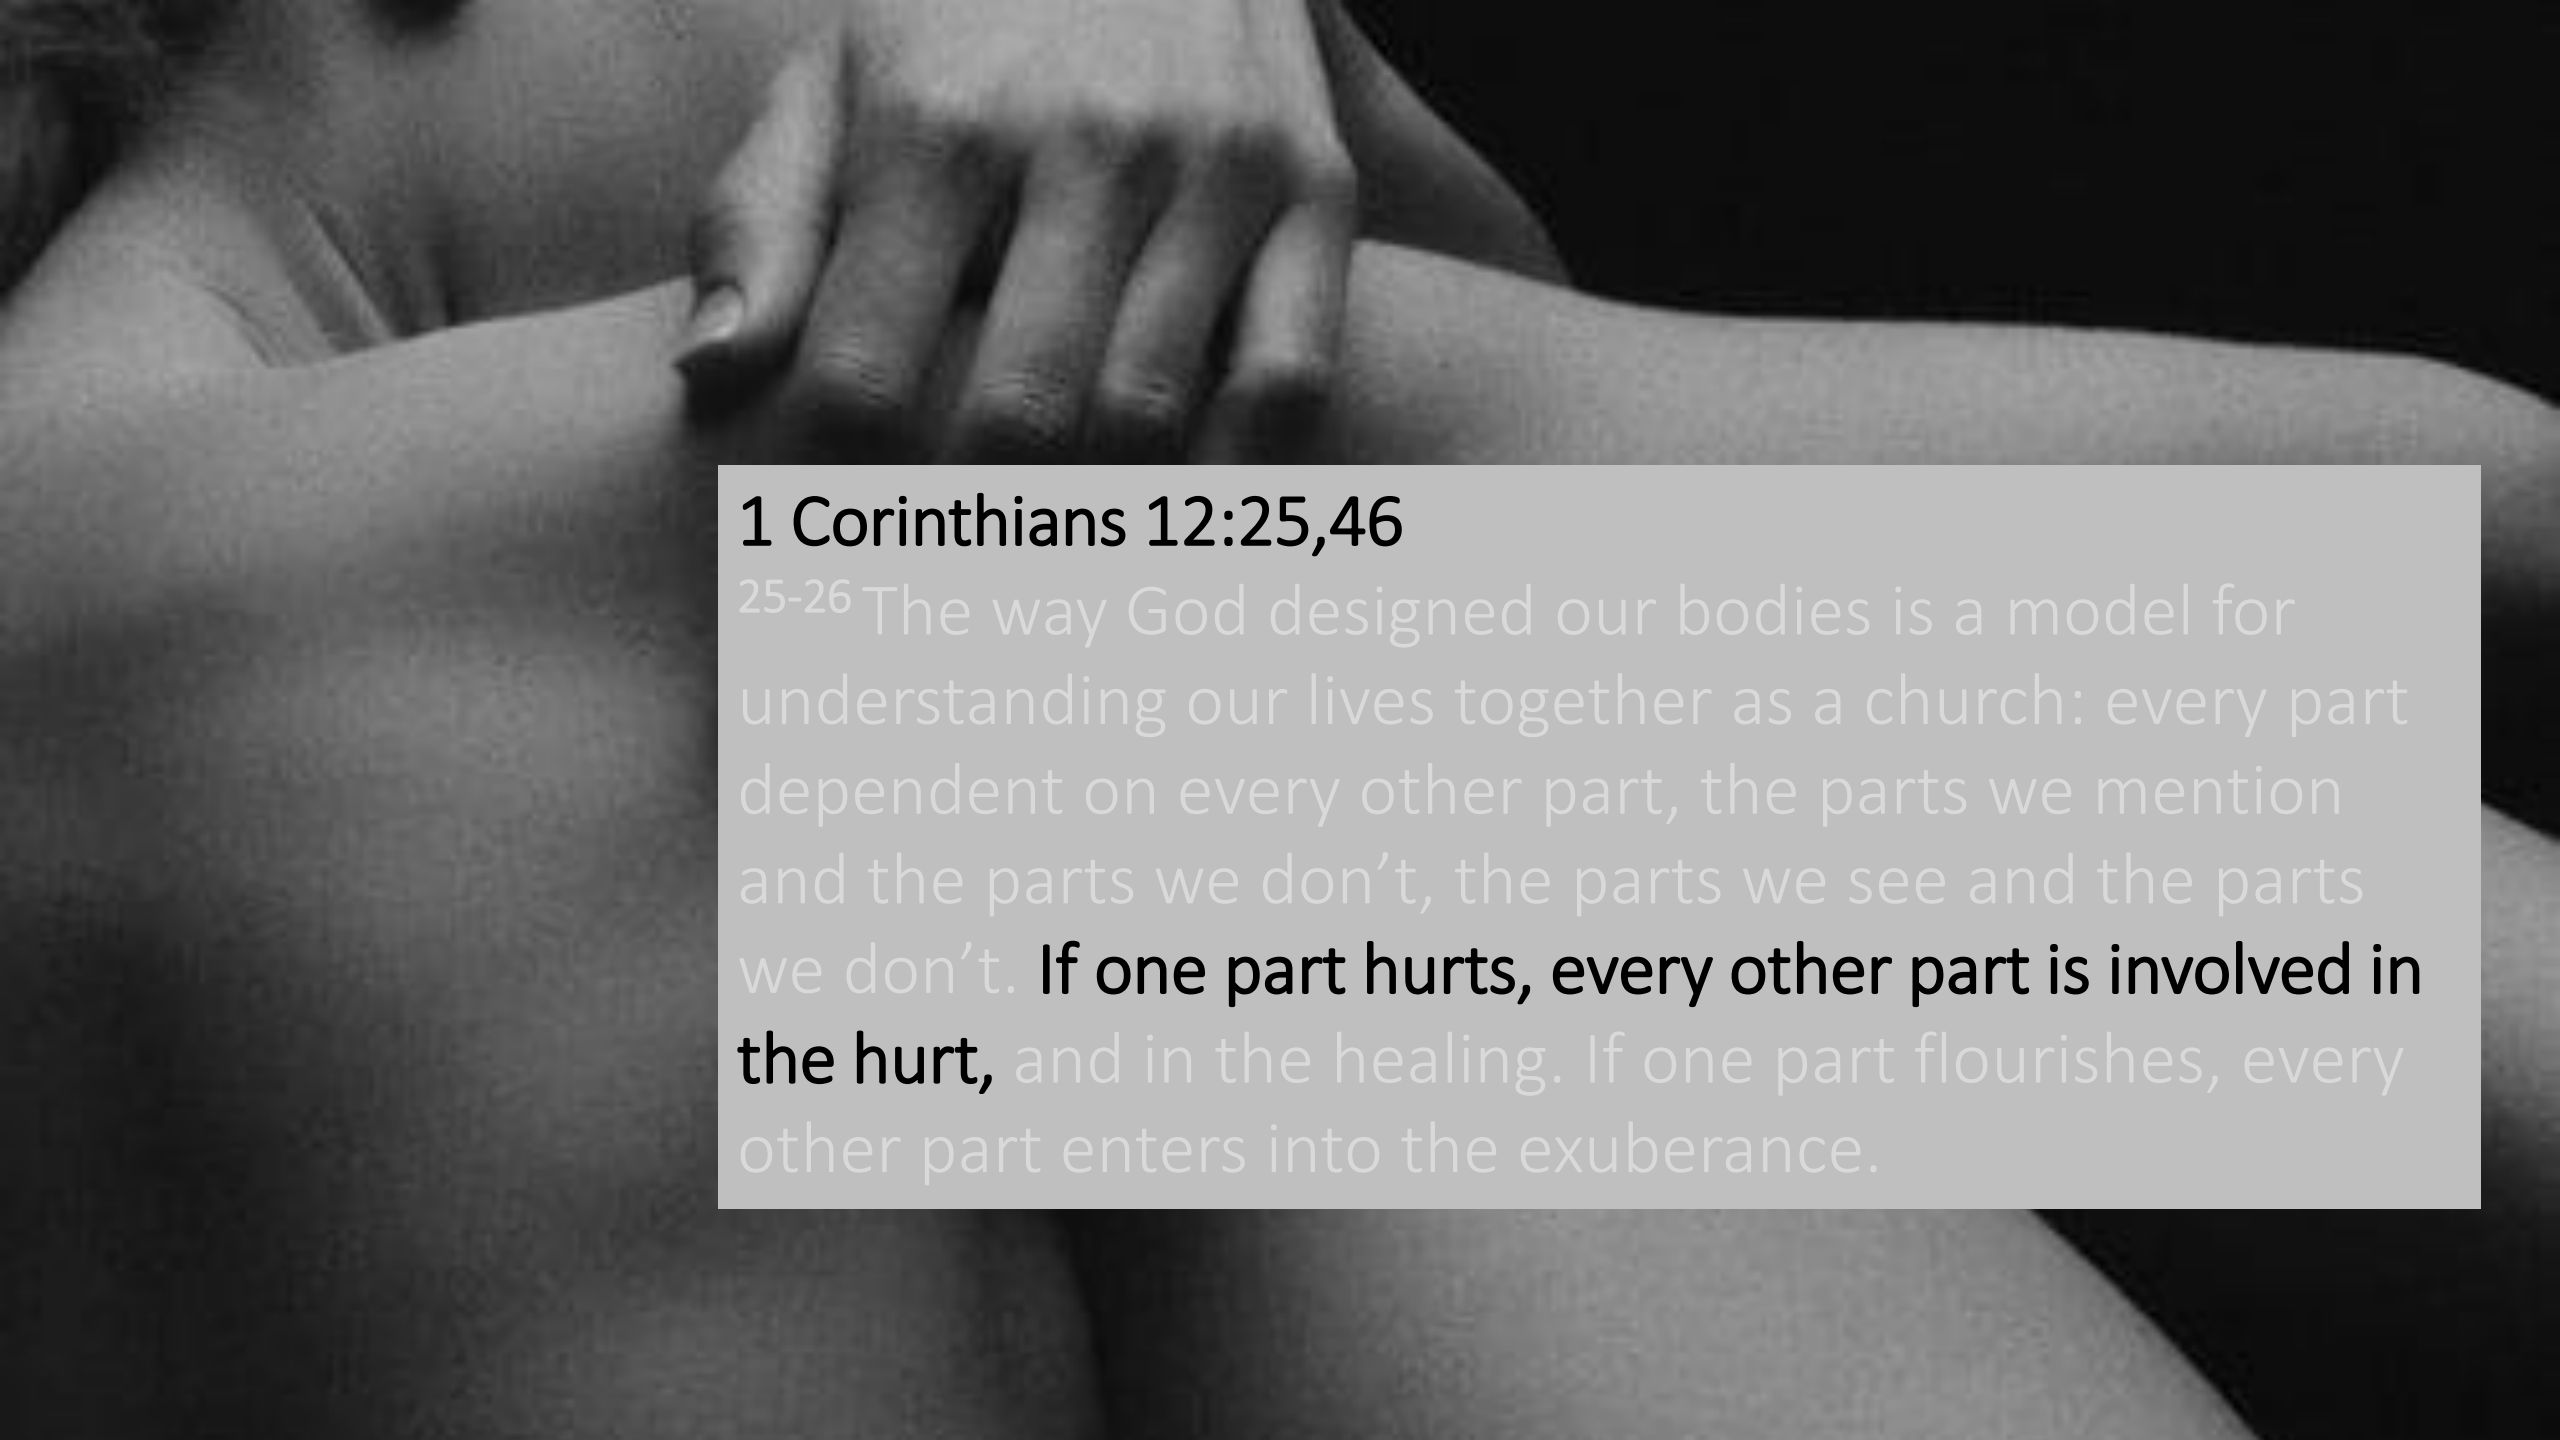

A black and white photograph showing a close-up of two hands clasped together. The hands are positioned in the center-left of the frame, with fingers interlaced. The lighting is soft, highlighting the texture of the skin and the veins on the hands. The background is dark and out of focus, emphasizing the hands. The overall mood is one of care, support, and solidarity.

'When one suffers, we all suffer'

1 Corinthians 12:25,46

²⁵⁻²⁶ The way God designed our bodies is a model for understanding our lives together as a church: every part dependent on every other part, the parts we mention and the parts we don't, the parts we see and the parts we don't. If one part hurts, every other part is involved in the hurt, and in the healing. If one part flourishes, every other part enters into the exuberance.

1 Corinthians 12:25,46

²⁵⁻²⁶ The way God designed our bodies is a model for understanding our lives together as a church: every part dependent on every other part, the parts we mention and the parts we don't, the parts we see and the parts we don't. If one part hurts, every other part is involved in the hurt, and in the healing. If one part flourishes, every other part enters into the exuberance.

1. Celebration of what is
2. Exploration of how counterculture it is
3. Conclusion on what makes it possible

1. Celebration of what is

2. Exploration of how counterculture it is

3. Conclusion on what makes it possible

1. Celebration of what is
2. Exploration of how counterculture it is
3. Conclusion on what makes it possible

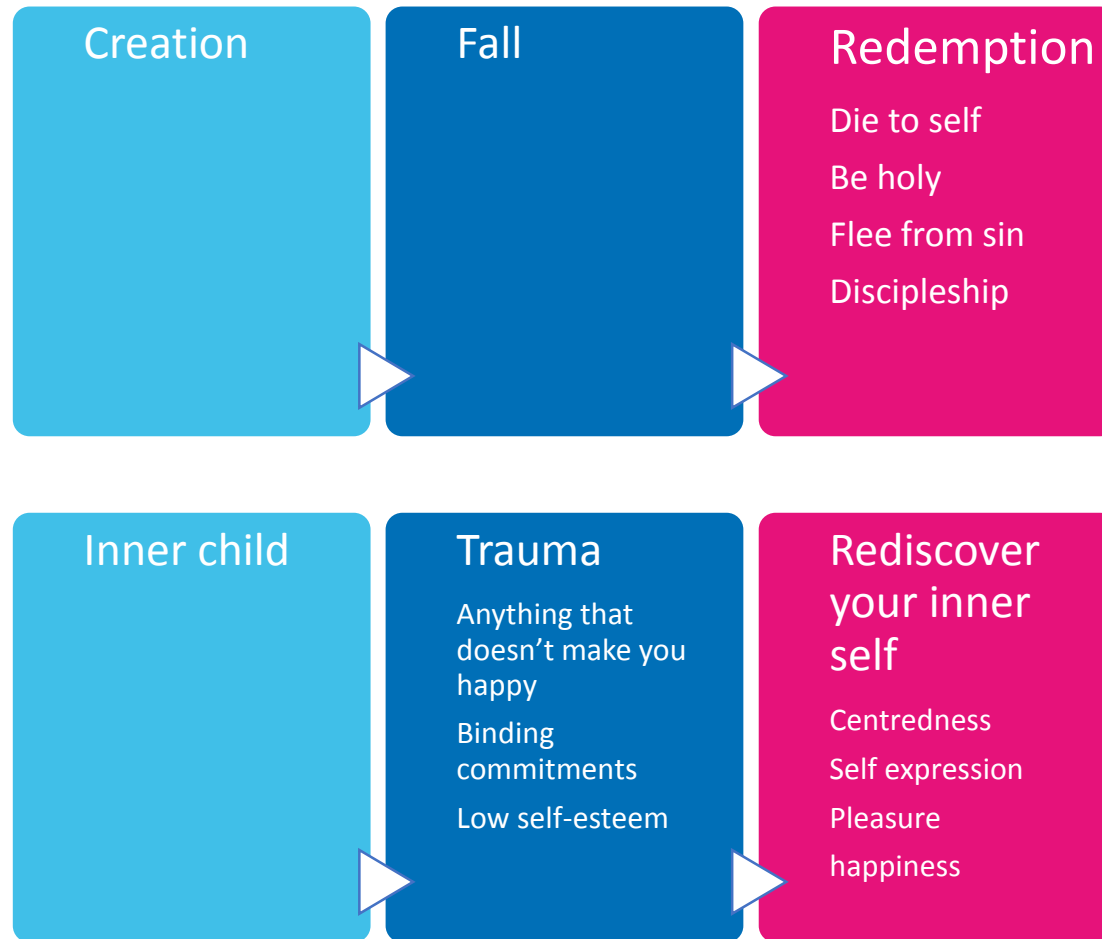

Colossians 2:8

See to it that no one takes you captive through hollow and deceptive philosophy, which depends on human tradition and the elemental spiritual forces of this world rather than on Christ.

Life as a system. With inputs and outputs that need reserves:

Christian story versus secular story:

1. Celebration of what is
2. Exploration of how counterculture it is
- 3. Conclusion on what makes it possible

1 Corinthians 12:12

Each of us is now a part of his resurrection body, refreshed and sustained at one fountain—his Spirit—where we all come to drink.

