Bringing heaven to earth

Acts 6: 1-8
"Tables"

Acts 6: 1-8

Now at this time while the disciples were increasing in number, a complaint arose on the part of the Hellenistic Jews against the native Hebrews, because their widows were being overlooked in the daily serving of food. ² So the twelve summoned the congregation of the disciples and said, "It is not desirable for us to neglect the word of God in order to serve tables. ³ Therefore, brethren, select from among you seven men of good reputation, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may put in charge of this task. ⁴ But we will devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word."

⁵ The statement found approval with the whole congregation; and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas and Nicolas, a proselyte from Antioch. ⁶ And these they brought before the apostles; and after praying, they laid their hands on them. ⁷ The word of God kept on spreading; and the number of the disciples continued to increase greatly in Jerusalem, and a great many of the priests were becoming obedient to the faith. ⁸ And Stephen, full of grace and power, was performing great wonders and signs among the people.

A key value:

Honour

“Honour is both the desire and the ability to recognize glory in one another”

Everyone honoured:

- Widows
- Congregation
- Apostles
- Volunteers

HONOUR

releases LIFE

3. Consequences

The background is a vibrant, abstract composition of light rays. The rays originate from a bright, white-yellow center and radiate outwards, creating a sense of motion and energy. The color palette transitions from deep blue on the left to bright cyan and green on the right, with a white-hot core at the center. The overall effect is reminiscent of a starburst or a powerful light source.
